AWARD CATEGORIES

Business of the Year Award

Awarded to an outstanding company whose growth, ambition and quality of management has enabled it to deliver first-class results in the past 12 months.

New Business of the Year Award

Awarded to a new business that has been trading for less than 2 years and has already demonstrated the potential to be an outstanding success.

Young Business Person of the Year

New for 2010, this award will go to an outstanding young individual (35 and under) who can best demonstrate ambition, energy, skill and vision, as well as tangible business success. This award is open both to young entrepreneurs who are enjoying success in building their own business, and to those employees who have had an outstanding impact in contributing to the successes of a larger organisation.

Business Lifetime Achievement Award

This award is given to a member of the Jewish community for his or her lifetime achievement in the field of business. The award is not open for nominations and will be chosen by the panel of judges.

HOW IT WORKS

The Awards

TrainE-TraidE's Jewish Business Awards recognise the best businesses and individuals from within the Jewish community or impacting upon the lives of Jewish people in the UK.

TrainE-TraidE's Jewish Business Awards are split into four different categories (for a full list of categories see above).

How do you enter?

If you believe that you, your business, or somebody you know deserves a TrainE-TraidE Jewish Business Award then please complete the attached nomination form. Judges will look favourably upon nominations from the people who really matter to your business - your customers. Your business can be nominated in any, or all, of the three categories.

The nominations can be done in different ways:

- Submitting this printed entry form to TrainE-TraidE, 314 Regents Park Road, London N3 2JX
- Nominating online at www.traine-traide.org.uk/awards

Nominations open on 17th December 2009 and close on 31st January 2010.

How are the awards judged?

The judging panel is made up of respected members of the Jewish business community, TrainE-TraidE and our sponsors.

The judging panel will meet after the closing date for entries to select a shortlist of possible award-winners. These shortlists will be announced two weeks before the Awards Ceremony.

The award winners will be announced at TrainE-TraidE's Business Awards Lunch 2010 at the Millennium Hotel London Mayfair which will take place on 24th February 2010. Tickets for the event are available by contacting mark.curtis@traide-traide.org.uk

What do you win?

Winners of each category win a TrainE-TraidE Jewish Business Award plaque presented at the awards ceremony. There will also be publicity and marketing opportunities from being short-listed and winning the award as well as the right to use 'Winner' and 'Finalist' logos on your own marketing materials. Coverage will be attained through our media partners the Jewish News & Media Group/Totally Communications.

BENEFITS

Nominees and winners of TrainE-TraidE's Jewish Business Awards can look forward to real business and personal rewards:

- Nomination represents validation by the wider business and Jewish communities
- Nomination signifies acknowledgement and recognition of hard work, effort and results
- There's a real sense of pride in being nominated
- 'Winner' and 'Finalist' logos can be used on all marketing materials to make your business stand out from the crowd
- Great promotional value through our media partners, the Jewish News & Media Group/Totally Communications

In addition:

- Awards will be presented at TrainE-TraidE's Business Awards Lunch in February 2010
- The winners will be celebrated on the TrainE-TraidE Jewish Business Awards website, the Jewish News and totallyjewish.com after the ceremony
